Picture Of The Past

THE ORIGINAL PLANT OF THE LOPEZ and Dukate factory at Point Cadet. The first operation was known as Lopez, Dunbars Sons & Company and through the years had other name changes, the last, and one most remembered around Biloxi, was the Dunbar-Dukate Company, shortened locally to DD Company.

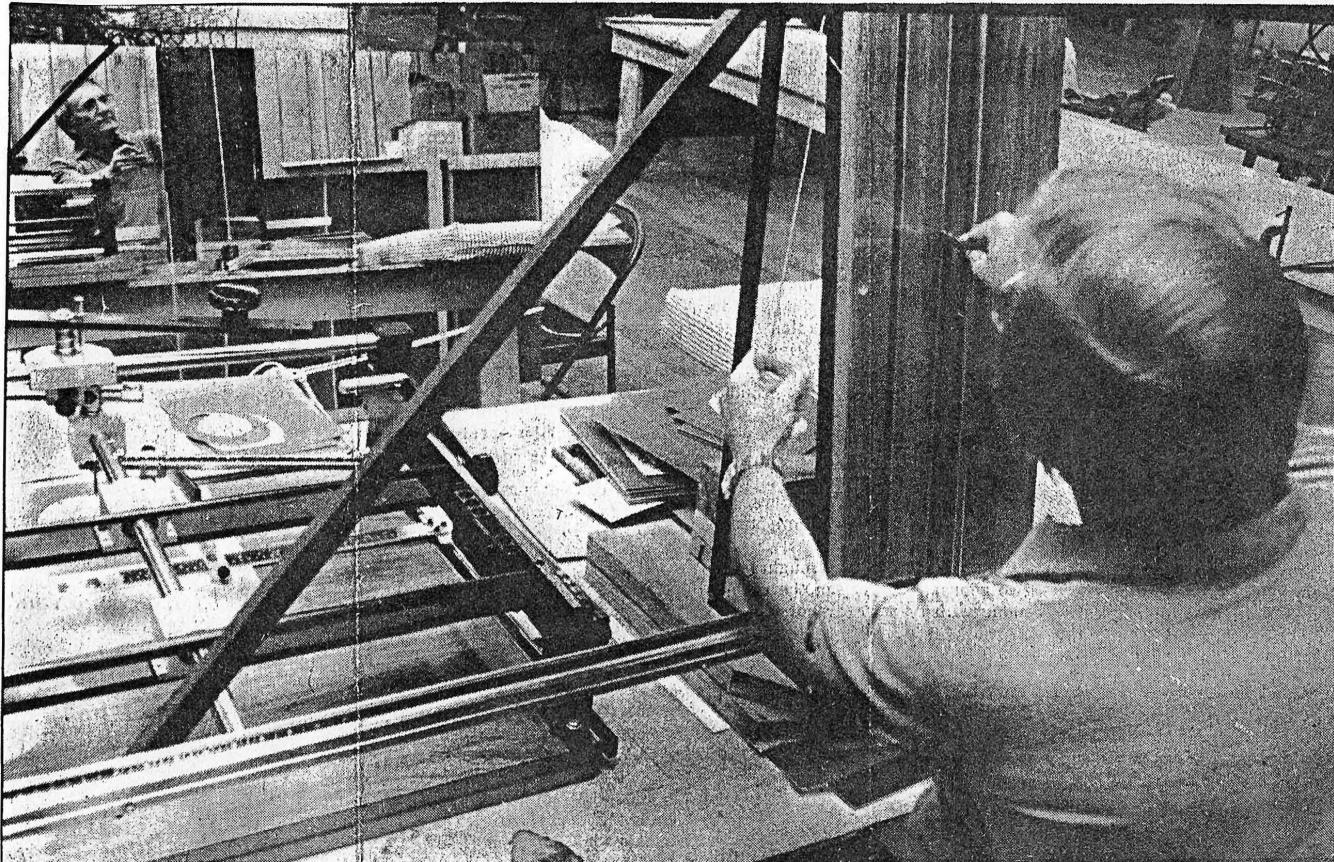

This plant was located on East Beach, just east of the foot of Oak Street and was replaced by a modern plant built later facing on East Beach Drive. This old factory continued to be used as a shucking shed, picking shed, warehouse and the docks were continued as unloading facilities for the new plant. The shrimp and oysters were conveyed from the wharf to the new plant by a system of tramways.

This photo was taken prior to 1905.
